

LICENSE OF ACCESS AND USE OF INSPIRE DATASETS AND SERVICES OF THE DIRECTORATE GENERAL FOR CADASTRE
FOR
Cadastral Parcels (CP)
Addresses (AD)
Buildings (BU)

Access to the Spanish Cadastre web services shall be carried out under a transfer of rights license to be obtained automatically, assuming with its use the knowledge and acceptance of the conditions of access and the license conditions that are listed below

Requirements for public use and dissemination of the information supplied

1. Downloading massive graphic and alphanumeric cadastral information and access to the cadastral web services are authorized to license holder user's own use, or for the development and distribution of new value-added products from the cadastral information provided, always that this is transformed by the interested party.

This license authorizes the public use, including commercial, of cadastral information that has been the subject of any prior process of transformation in the terms established in article 21 of the consolidated text of the Intellectual Property Act, approved by Royal Legislative Decree 1/1996, of 12 April.

Consequently, the license does not authorized the diffusion, distribution or commercialization of the given original information, which cannot be spread either by Internet nor by any other way without its previous transformation

2. Download information and access to the web services of the electronic office of the cadastre implies the recognition and acceptance of the users of the possible existence of data outdated or incorrect. The Directorate General for Cadastre will try to put at the disposal of users updated versions of the information provided in previous periods, without involving any obligation of singular or periodic update of previously downloaded information.
3. The Directorate General for Cadastre shall in no case responsible for the products or services generated by the re-user from the transformation of the cadastral information downloaded. The information distributed to third parties by the interested party will lack of irrefutability with respect to the physical, legal or economic circumstances of the real estate registered in the Cadastre.

Beneficiaries of the massive download or web service to access to cadastral information should support the claims of third parties which may result in products of added value based on the information provided by the Directorate General of the Cadastre. The transformation of the cadastral information may not make alteration of the contents of the cadastral information or denaturing of its meaning. New products or services that may not supplant to those offered by the Directorate general for the cadastre

To these effects, it is understood that the new products or services generated supplant those offered by the Directorate general for Cadastre if they are identified as "cadastral cartography", "cadastral information", or equivalent terms that may lead to confusion.

Suspension of Service

The service will be suspended when the scheduled shutdown of the Cadastral Electronic office (Sede Electrónica del Catastro (SEC)), in which will be announced these in advance.

In this sense, it may suspend service to any user, during the download process, or during access to web services, is detected that its intensity, frequency or any other sudden circumstances go to the detriment of the performance of the access of other users, or the quality or safety of the service. In these cases, the system will automatically interrupt the download process or the information service and shall notify the person concerned the reasons which justify it, as well as the data of contact of the responsible for the service, to be informed of the alternatives to access the requested information. The Directorate General for Cadastre shall in no case be responsible for the effects that occur on the activity of the users as a result of scheduled or technical stops of the service.

Cases of revocation of the license

The Cadastre will do the revocation of the license previously granted when subsequent to delivery it will discover a misuse, proceeding in this case to the determination of responsibilities in the terms envisaged in article 78 of RD 417/2006. In accordance with the provisions of article 54 of the Law of Real Estate Cadastre, against the revocation of the license may be brought appeal with to the Director General of the Cadastre.